1. A considerable number of Japanese from the Dairen area, technicians and members of their families, have been transported to Harbin, Chianassu (130-21, 46-49) and Mutanchiang (129-37, 44-35), via North Korea.
2. One such group arrived in Harbin during the early part of May. a second group arrived a week later. These persons are housed in the former Minaka (三 中) Production Company building on Shui Tao Chieh (水道街), Harbin. For the most part they are unemployed. A third group went only as far as Mutanchiang. They stopped at Mutanchiang because of the housing shortage in Harbin.
3. The first and second groups, which reached Harbin, were each composed of approximately 1,500 persons. The third group, which stopped at Mutanchiang, comprised 7,000 persons.
